

CAROL MUNOZ

SECRETARY, EXECUTIVE COUNCIL
HABEMATOLEL POMO OF UPPER LAKE

Carol Munoz is Secretary for the Habematolel Pomo of Upper Lake, a federally recognized Indian Nation located in Upper Lake, California. Secretary Munoz was elected to the Tribe's seven-member Executive Council in 2020. As Secretary, Munoz is charged with the well-being of the Tribe and success of its sovereign enterprises as it continually strives for economic self-reliance through e-commerce, gaming and other economic opportunities unique to tribal lands. Carol Munoz's mission is to bring honor to her family and ancestors through hard work and dedication to the Tribe by helping preserve its sovereignty, culture, health and well-being for future generations. It has been a personal, lifelong goal of Carol to take her aptitude for continuous improvement through hard work and give back to her Tribe. Carol is now doing just that when she decided to leave the corporate world and eagerly leaped into her Tribal career.

Prior to her elected role, Secretary Munoz worked for Brandvia as a Program Manager where she was responsible for managing a team of Program Specialists and Program Coordinators. In this position she developed and maintained strategic long-term trusting relationships with high value clients to accomplish organic growth and financial objectives.

In addition to her Council responsibilities, Secretary Munoz continues to serve on the Personnel Committee, where she has served since 2002, and the Constitution Review Committee, where she has served since 2019.

Secretary Munoz was born in Lake County and currently resides in San Jose, California. She looks forward to serving her Tribe and the community in her new role.
