

VERONICA KROHN

MEMBER-AT-LARGE, EXECUTIVE COUNCIL
HABEMATOLEL POMO OF UPPER LAKE

Veronica Krohn is a Member-at-Large for the Habematolel Pomo of Upper Lake, a federally recognized Indian Nation in Upper Lake, California. Member-at-Large Krohn was elected to the Tribe's seven-member Executive Council in 2020.

Prior to her election with the Executive Council, she served on several committees, such as the Parent Advisory, Seven Generation Scholarship Fund Selection and Secretarial Election Board Committees. Krohn currently serves on the Parent Advisory Committee, and plans to continue serving her Tribe in this capacity while serving on the Executive Council. In addition to volunteering, Krohn has worked for the Tribe in various roles since 2012. She served as Human Resource Assistant for Running Creek Casino, Custodian for the Council, and Fiscal Clerk Assistant for the Fiscal Department.

Dedicated to her tribe, she believes her role as a Member-at-Large is to be a part of the overall care and success of the Tribe and its Tribal Businesses.

Krohn currently resides in Clearlake, California with her husband and four children. As a motivated and determined learner, she is currently enrolled in school and on track to receive her Associate of Science degree in Early Childhood Education by 2022.

VERONICA KROHN