November Star Award:

November Heart Award:

This last month's Heart Award recipient is Sovaan Gamma (aka "Bob" pictured bottom right), and was nominated for being "Courageous and Brave"! Good job Bob...

If you know an HPUL youth, who you feel is deserving of recognition for a Super Youth Award, please submit your nomination to the Tribe's portal at hpultribe-nsn.gov on the Education page "SUPER YOUTH AWARD APPLICATION" or to Joy Marcks, Education Director, at jmarcks@hpultribe-nsn.gov

THE ART OF COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Strategies for Building a Sustainable Volunteer Support Program for Families in Need

Learn strategies to develop protective factors like social connections and ways to offer resources for foster and biological families in times of need through program models that build volunteer support for foster families and children. This webinar will discuss building a sustainable volunteer program for families through offering support to the overwhelmed caregiver (rather than asking more of them) while balancing the needs of volunteers and the families they serve.
